CONFLICT OF INTEREST DISCLOSURE

The award of this contract is subject to the provisions of Chapter 112, Florida Statutes. All Firms must disclose within their responses to the City of Fort Myers the name of any officer, director, or agent who is also an employee of the City of Fort Myers (hereinafter the "City").

Furthermore, all firms must disclose the name of any City employee who owns, directly or indirectly, an interest of more than five percent (5%) in the firm of any of its branches.

The purpose of this disclosure is to give the City the information needed to identify potential conflicts of interest for evaluation by the team members and other key personnel involved in the award of this contract.

The term "conflict of interest" refers to situations in which financial or other personal consideration may adversely affect, or have the appearance of adversely affecting, an employee's professional judgment in exercising any City duty or responsibility in administration, management, instruction, research, or other professional activities.

Please submit to the City all information on any potential conflict of interest related to provision of the goods or services requested in this Solicitation.

NON-COLLUSION AFFIDAVIT

The firm swears and attests that it is fully informed respecting the preparation and contents of the attached Solicitation, and of all pertinent circumstances respecting the provision of the goods or services to the City of Fort Myers.

The offer or submittal being made is genuine and is not collusive or a sham.

I certify that all information contained in the submittal is truthful to the best of my knowledge and belief. I further certify that I am duly authorized to submit this submittal on behalf of the company as its agent and that the company is ready, willing, and able to perform if awarded a contract.

I further certify, under oath, that this submittal is made without prior understanding, agreement, connection, discussion, or collusion with any other person, company or corporation submitting a proposal for the same product or service; no officer, employee or agent of the City of Fort Myers or of any other Company who is interested in said submittal; and that the undersigned executed this Proposer's Certification with full knowledge and understanding of the matters therein contained and was duly authorized to do so.

EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION SYSTEM (E-VERIFY) - Section 448.095, Florida Statute

Statutes and executive orders require employers to abide by the immigration laws of the United States and to employ, in the United States, only individuals who are eligible to work in the United States.

The E-Verify program provides an internet-based means of verifying employment eligibility of workers employed in the United States; it is not a substitute for any other employment eligibility verification requirements.

The program will be used for:

- a. Commercial or noncommercial services or construction;
- b. Projects which exceed the City of Fort Myers small dollar threshold;
- c. Work performed in the United States.

Exceptions to the program:

- a. Commodity based procurement where no services are provided;
- b. In exceptional cases, the City Council may waive the requirement.

Firms, who are not enrolled in the program at the time the City project is advertised, must enroll, and produce a copy of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with the Firm's submission to the City. Upon signing up for the program, the Firm must follow the federal guidelines for verifying all their employees, whether assigned to the contract or not, are in accordance with the Verification of Employment Eligibility.

Firms that are already enrolled in the program must produce a copy of their MOU with the Firm's submission to the City. Firms must follow the federal guidelines for verifying all their employees, whether assigned to the contract or not, are in accordance with the Verification of Employment Eligibility.

Subcontractor requirement: Firms shall require all subcontracted firms to flow down the requirement to use E-Verify to subcontractors.

It shall be the firm's responsibility to familiarize themselves with all rules and regulations governing this program.

By providing a submission to the City, the Contractor and any subcontractor(s) are obligated to comply with the provisions of Section 448.095, Fla. Stat., "Employment Eligibility," as amended from time to time. This includes but is not limited to utilization of the E-Verify System to verify the work authorization status of all newly hired employees, and requiring all subcontractors to provide an affidavit attesting that the subcontractor does not employ, contract with, or subcontract with, an unauthorized alien. The contractor shall maintain a copy of such affidavit for the duration of the contract. Failure to comply will lead to termination of any resulting Contract (including any Purchase Order), or if a subcontractor knowingly violates the statute, the resulting subcontract must be terminated immediately. Any challenge to termination under this provision must be filed in the Circuit Court no later than 20 calendar days after the date of termination. If any contract is terminated for a violation of the statute by the Contractor, the Contractor may not be awarded a public contract for a period of 1 year after the date of termination.

For additional information regarding the Employment Eligibility Verification System (E-Verify) program visit the E-Verify Website.

Firms shall be required to provide the City of Fort Myers Procurement Services an executed affidavit vowing they shall comply with the E-Verify Program for each service/project.
